What is the treatment for holiday depression, anxiety, and stress?

Those suffering from any type of holiday depression or stress may benefit from increased social support during this time of year. For uncomplicated holiday blues, improvement may be found by finding ways to reduce the stresses associated with the holiday, either by limiting commitments and outside activities, making arrangements to share family responsibilities such as gift shopping and meal preparation, agreeing upon financial limits for purchases, or taking extra time to rest and rejuvenate. In addition to being an important step in preventing the symptoms of seasonal affective disorder, regular exposure to light that is bright, particularly fluorescent lights, significantly improves depression in people with SAD during the fall and winter. Phototherapy is commercially available in the form of light boxes, which are used for approximately 30 minutes daily. The light required must be of sufficient brightness, approximately 25 times as bright as a normal living room light. The light treatment is used daily in the morning and evening for best results.

Respite Care
A reminder to those of you who are unpaid caregivers of a friend or family member. Respite care is available for up to 13 days a month at Hamlet House in Lopez Village if space is available, or on the mainland. The rate paid is based on the monthly income of the person receiving care. It is a sliding scale, and Northwest Regional Council pays the difference from the Respite grant they receive from the State of Washington. This program allows the caregiver to have a break from caregiving, which is necessary for them to remain in good emotional and physical health. If this sounds like something you would benefit from please call Senior Services at 360.468.2421.

Meal Service—Lunch
Lunch at noon Wednesdays and Fridays.

Holiday Eating Without Stuffing (Yourself)
From the Archives of Carol Simmer, RD

During the holidays we put blinders on the notion of "well-balanced" holiday fare and only see "well-stocked" plates of turkey, ham, stuffing, two kinds of potatoes, gravy, rolls, green bean casserole, marshmallow fruit salad, and two or three desserts! These foods are wonderful, but enjoy them all in one meal and you will likely end up stuffed!

The negative effects on your body from overindulging during the holiday season can leave you regretting that 3rd serving of mashed potatoes. When the body tries to digest a large volume of foods with excessive fat, salt, sugar, and protein, the result is often fatigue, bloating, gas, heartburn, weight gain, as well as possible headaches, swelling, and depression! Overeating can also cause your blood sugar to spike and can put a strain on your kidneys, pancreas, liver, and heart. We can avoid feeling stuffed and still enjoy holiday meals by making healthier choices and by engaging in mindful eating practices such as slowing down and tuning into your body’s hunger and fullness signals.

Let's look at ways to make some popular holiday foods healthier and still delicious!

Try cooking tender-skinned potatoes with the skin, and whip with butter and garlic. The skin adds color and fiber!

Instead of candied yams, try mashing the yams with a small amount of butter, top with plumped dried fruit (raisins or dried cranberries soaked in orange juice or a liquor), and chopped nuts.

Green beans, especially fresh, are great alone or combined with carrots and chopped onions. Sprinkle with pepper or a favorite herb blend, coarse sea salt, a bit of melted butter or olive oil, and perhaps crispy bacon crumbles. I also like to add sliced water chestnuts to give some crunch.

Try cranberry-orange relish instead of plain cranberry sauce. It has great color and texture and extraordinary nutrition. Chop or grind together fresh cranberries and whole oranges (without the seeds and excessive rind) and sweeten to taste with honey, sugar, or sugar substitute. Chopped pecans for add flavor and texture.

We look forward to delicious holiday desserts, especially cookies, a variety of pies, and cheesecake! If you make your own desserts, look at ways to cut down on the fat and sugar. If not, consider healthier choices and limit portion sizes. For instance, pumpkin pie packs a nutritional punch compared to many other desserts, but it is still high in sugar and fat, so the size of your slice makes a difference!

Happy, Healthy Holiday Eating!

The Lopez Operations Committee

Once again the people of Lopez Island have come through for us seniors. After at least ten years (it was purchased used), the gas range in the kitchen appears to have problem after problem. So we started to set up a gas range fund and the goal was met before we got the details all worked out. Thank you Lopez for your quick attention.

As a result of the kitchen using old equipment, we have decided to keep the gas range fund open as a kitchen fund. We know that we could use more shelving in the pantry, we will need to replace a cranky old steam table, the county is asking us to add a grease trap, and it would be helpful to have a plate warmer in serving good hot food.

Most of the ground work has been done in all these areas, but you may encounter a few inconveniences as we attempt to work these items around our Wednesday and Friday lunches. Again, I want to thank the people of Lopez for their generosity, Jessica and the kitchen ladies for their input and advice, and finally Holly and the operations board for their fine work and support.

Carl Bender, Chairman
Lopez Operations Committee
Trips

Off-island medical trips are available on Tuesdays and Thursdays if a driver is available.

To schedule off-island medical trips, we ask that you pay attention to the current ferry schedule and schedule appointments in late morning or early afternoon appointments to catch the 5:10 pm ferry from Anacortes to Lopez.

We are making reservations for these trips so it is very important for you to know approximately how long your appointments will take.

Suggested donation $30 for all off island destinations.

These trips will be in the Anacortes and Mt Vernon–Burlington area. Please call Senior Services (360.468-2421) at least one week in advance so that we may schedule a volunteer driver. Bellingham or Seattle is possible if we can find a volunteer able to make that trip.

If you are planning an appointment at Peace Island Hospital/Medical Clinic in Friday Harbor, they will pay for taxi service with The Round Towner Taxi (360.298-4434). This service allows patrons to walk on the ferry at Lopez and then take the taxi to Peace Island Hospital/Medical Clinic.
